Dear Minister,

A year and a half have passed since Xulhaz Mannan and his colleague were hacked to death when machete-wielding attackers stormed his home. Even though there are witnesses and ample evidence, the police investigation has stalled and Xulhaz's killers have not been held accountable.

The failure to hold anyone accountable for Xulhaz's murder has created a climate of fear among human rights defenders, including LGBTIQ activists.

I call on you to ensure that this murder is not forgotten and that justice is served without further delay.

Yours sincerely,

Minister of Justice

Dear Minister,

I urge to quash Clovis Razafimalala's conviction immediately. The environmental and human rights activist is doing everything he can to protect Madagascar's vanishing rainforest.

Furthermore, I urge you to ensure human rights defenders and environmental activists are protected, and their rights to freedom of expression, association and peaceful assembly respected.

I call for an investigation into the allegations of illegal rosewood trafficking, and for those responsible to be brought to justice.

Yours sincerely,

Prime Minister of Jamaica
Andrew Holness

Dear Honourable Andrew Holness,

On 20 January 2014, Nakiea Jackson was shot dead by the police in Kingston. Since then his family has suffered intense intimidation from the police and faced an unresponsive legal system.

I urge you to ensure that a swift and independent judicial investigation into the alleged unlawful killing of Nakiea Jackson is carried out, and I call for those responsible to be brought to justice.

Kindly ensure to provide the Jacksons with protection, in accordance with their wishes.

I call for reform of the criminal justice system to ensure justice for Nakiea Jackson and other relatives of people allegedly killed by police.

Yours sincerely,

Dear President,

I call on you to publicly acknowledge the vital work of MILPAH (the Independent Lenca Indigenous Movement of La Paz), COPINH and all further land and environmental organisations and give their members the protection they demand. This protection is what is required of your government by the precautionary measures issued by the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights.

Prime Minister Juha Sipilä

Dear Prime Minister,

The current procedure to obtain legal gender recognition in Finland is humiliating and discriminatory.

Therefore, I urge you to revise the Trans Act by abolishing the need for sterilization, other medical treatment, and a mental health diagnosis, as requirements for a person's legal recognition of their gender identity.

I call on you to develop a gender recognition procedure that is quick, transparent, based on self-determination, and available irrespective of age, medical or financial status.

Finally, I urge you to recognize and support transgender rights and those who defend transgender rights in Finland.

Yours sincerely,

President Abdelfatah el-Sisi

Your Excellency,

I urge you to drop all charges against Hanan Badr el-Din, and free her immediately and unconditionally.

I call on you to inform Hanan Badr el-Din without delay of the fate and whereabouts of her husband Khaled Ezz el-Din, and similarly inform the families of all forcibly disappeared detainees in Egypt of the fate and whereabouts of their detained family member.

Finally, I urge you to stop the use of enforced disappearance in Egypt, establish independent investigations into the practice, and ensure that perpetrators are held accountable.
